श्री गुरु दीपाय नमः

Jadan, December 2021

Blessed Selves, Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On 5 December (Western calendar) and 23 December (Vedic lunar calendar) we observe the anniversary of the Mahasamadhi of our beloved and revered Bhagwan Sri Deep Narayan Mahaprabhuji.

Mahaprabhuji was the incarnation of love, kindness, compassion, a light of wisdom and peace and the protector of Sanatan Dharma for the benefit of all living beings. The divine Light of Sri Mahaprabhuji is alive in all of us.

Due to corona regulations, in many countries it is not possible to come together in our YIDL ashrams and centres. Be there in your mind and heart! Light a candle on your altar at home, think on Sri Mahaprabhuji and make a mala for the wellbeing and health of all our Guru sisters and Guru brothers and the whole world.

Let us all carry Mahaprabhuji's divine light and blessings in our hearts.

May He lead us to unity, love, peace and enlightenment.

I pray and send you all blessings in the name of Sri Mahaprabhuji and the Sri Alakpuriji Siddha Peeth Parampara.

Vishwaguruji
